Pour Yourself A Cold One For National Beer Day On Thursday, April 7th

On April 7, 1933, President Franklin Roosevelt took the first step toward ending Prohibition and signed law that allowed people to brew and sell beer, in the United States. Beer drinkers across the country rejoiced and were happy to be able to purchase beer again for the first time in many years. In honor of this joyous day, visit these San Diego establishments and celebrate National Beer Day this Thursday!

Brewing their own beer, Pacific Beach Ale House knows a thing or two about beer. Lead brewer, Jonathan Rielly, has been recognized for his brewing talent with a gold medal in the San Diego International Beer Festival and has been putting his talent to work at Alehouse. This world-class microbrewery is making micro-brews with macro-tastes, from a dry English stout to an easy drinking IPA, PB Alehouse has a variety of beers to help celebrate this grand day! Stop in for “Hoppy Hour” Monday through Friday from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. for $2 off draft beers. You’ll be so “hoppy” you came by!

With over 30 rotating taps, Common Theory Public House adores their craft beers. The rotating selection of beers come from many of the local San Diego brewers, breweries up and down the California coast and from different parts of the country. With a progressive happy hour Monday through Friday from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., enjoy special prices on draft beer as the time ticks away. Drink your local favorite or be adventurous and try an out-of-state beer. Honor our fore fathers and try all different types of brews.

Backyard Kitchen & Tap offers beers in a setting complete with outdoor cabanas, live walls, fire pits and two full-service bars. Relax at this beachside eatery with a cold “brewsky” and fine company. Draft beers include beloved brews from local breweries such as Ballast Point, Belching Beaver and Alpine Beer Company. If you’re in PB, be sure to step into this local hot-spot for $2 off draft brews from 3:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. every Monday through Friday. Good brews and good times are waiting for you!

In North Park, take a sip from one of the 30 taps at True North Tavern. Ballast Point, Green Flash, Karl Strauss, Stone and Rough Draft are just some of the cold beers on tap. Complete with pool tables and 25 HDTV’s enjoy a relaxing day at this chill neighborhood bar. A praise-worthy extended happy hour from 12:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., this your go-to-spot to start National Beer Day celebrations a little earlier than planned. Enjoy a $1 off crisp beers and pull up a chair on the sunny outdoor patio. True North Tavern will spoil you on this great day.

A beer selection to rave about, barleymash in the Gaslamp Quarter has local, domestic and import beers at your disposition. From light, crisp and refreshing to dark, malt and robust; barleymash has beers for all taste buds. Drink your most cherished San Diego beer or a Mexican import while unwinding on National Beer Day. Don’t miss their signature Time N’ A Half Happy Hour for half off the entire beer selection Monday through Friday from 3:00 p.m. till 6:00 p.m.

Union Kitchen & Tap Encinitas and in the Gaslamp Quarter have your beer needs covered. If you're a fan of bottled beers, Union Kitchen & Tap Gaslamp location has a selection of 14 bottled beers on the menu. Stop by Monday through Friday from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. for $2 off all beers. If you prefer a draft beer and a late night social hour, Union Kitchen & Tap in Encinitas is the place to be. Boasting 12 beers on tap for you to sip on, join them Sunday through Thursday from 10:00 p.m. until close for $5 beers. Honor thy beer during the day or late at night at Union Kitchen & Tap.

Raise your glass to President Franklin Roosevelt and spend some time with your significant brew. Revel with a pint of ale, lager, stout, wheat beer or mild ale on this fine day!
